Instructions

You are going to read this story titled Reading Group out loud. This story is about when Andrew has trouble during his reading group (turn the reading passage over, face down). Try to read each word. You can use your finger to keep your place. If you come to a word you don't know, I'll tell it to you. You will read for one minute. Be sure to do your best reading. Are there any questions? (turn the passage right-side up). Put your finger on the first word. Begin.

Reading Group

“Good, Andrew . I’m glad to hear that. Now will	8
you please pick up your chair and join your reading	18
group? We’re all waiting for you.”	24
Andrew stood up in a hurry. His reading group	32
giggled. Especially Sharon . He couldn’t stand that	38
Sharon . She thought she knew everything! He picked	45
up his chair and carried it to the corner where his	56
reading group sat.	59
“You may begin, Andrew ,” Miss Kelly said. “Page	65
sixty-four.”	67
Andrew turned the pages in his book. Sixty- four...	75
sixty-four. He couldn’t find it. The pages stuck	84 together. Why did Miss Kelly have to pick him?	92
Everybody else already had their books opened to	100
the right page.	103
Sharon kept giggling. She covered her mouth to	110
keep in the noise, but Andrew knew what was going on.	120
He finally found page sixty-four. Right where it was	130 supposed to be... between pages sixty-three and	138 sixty-five. If he had his own freckles he wouldn’t	148 have to count Nicky Lane ’s. Then he’d hear Miss Kelly	155
when she called reading groups.	160
