Instructions

You are going to read this story titled The Lost Present out loud. This story is about when Nate the Great goes looking for a present that Rosamond lost (turn the reading passage over, face down). Try to read each word. You can use your finger to keep your place. If you come to a word you don't know, I'll tell it to you. You will read for one minute. Be sure to do your best reading. Are there any questions? (turn the passage right-side up). Put your finger on the first word. Begin.

The Lost Present

This must be where she lost my present and was looking for it?	13
Sludge sniffed the snow. I looked in the snow for a package or	25
the snow print of a package. But the snow next to the sled marks	39 was unbroken. I, Nate the Great, was puzzled. How could something	49
drop off the sled and not be in the snow or leave a mark in the snow?	66
There were no footprints either.	71
So I, Nate the Great, knew that no one had come along and taken	84
the birthday present. But how did the present get off the sled, and	97
where was it?	100
"This is a tough, ice-cold case," I said to Sludge .	110
Sludge shivered. We trudged on. We saw Annie and her	118 dog Fang . Sludge shivered some more. He was afraid of Fang .	126
I, Nate the Great, was afraid of Fang . Fang ran toward us.	135
Sludge leaped over a big pile of snow. I had never seen Sludge leap	147
that high.	149
" Fang is so friendly," Annie said. She was making a snow dog.	159
It looked just like Fang . It had icicles for teeth.	168
