

Lauren Earl
CPSP218G

Digital Image Processing Software Proof of Concept Exercise

My experience in Earth, Life and Time scholars so far has been very enjoyable. It has allowed me to continue to learn about a variety of science based topics that I would not be able to pursue within my major, as well as offer field trips to complement the topics we discuss. The classroom experience has combined lecture and activities in a way that makes the class fun and informative.

