

The Encyclopedia of Ancient History

The Encyclopedia of Ancient History

Roger S. Bagnall (Editor), Kai Brodersen (Editor), Craig B. Champion (Editor), Andrew Erskine (Editor), Sabine R. Huebner (Ed
ISBN: 978-1-4051-7935-5

Hardcover

7000 pages

December 2011, Wiley-Blackwell

US $1,995.00 Add to Cart

This price is valid for United States. Change location to view local pricing and availability.

The definitive reference work within classical studies and ancient history, this Encyclopedia is essential for all students and scholars of the ancient world.

13-volume major reference in A-Z format, with entries ranging from 250-5000 words

Provides clear, concise, definitions and explanations of the key people, places, and events

Spans the late Bronze Age through the seventh century CE

Covers the entire Mediterranean world including the Near East and Egypt

Internationally diverse editorial board and contributors

Highly illustrated with hundreds of photographs, figures, and maps

For further details, a list of entries and sample chapters see www.encyclopediaancienthistory.com.

Welcome to The Encyclopedia of Ancient History

The Encyclopedia of Ancient History is the definitive resource for the study of the history of the ancient world, available both in print and online. The encyclopedia covers the entire Mediterranean world, including the Near East and Egypt, and spans from the late Bronze Age through the seventh century CE. We are pleased to announce it will be publishing in November 2011.

This ground-breaking project will be available digitally on the Wiley Online Library platform and provides users with powerful searching and browsing capabilities, making it easy to locate the information that you need in seconds.

Start browsing sample entries now. To gain access to the full encyclopedia, your library will need to subscribe so recommend it to your library today!

Specially commissioned entries: Written and edited by an internationally diverse team of editors and contributors

Comprehensive: 13-volume major reference work in A-Z format, with over 5,000 entries ranging from 250-5,000 words

Wide-ranging: Covers the entire Mediterranean world including the Near East and Egypt and spans from the late Bronze Age through the seventh century CE

Continuous access: 24/7 access to the most authoritative and up-to-date scholarship in the study of the ancient world

Easy-to-use: Extensive cross-referencing and OpenURL linking

Invaluable: Extensively illustrated with hundreds of photographs, figures, and maps and provides clear, concise, definitions and explanations of key people, places, and events

Up-to-date: New entries and revisions posted regularly

Easy access for your library: Variety of access routes supported; optimized search; industry standard usage reports; and MARC records support

General Editor

Roger S. Bagnall is Professor of Ancient History and Director of the Institute for the Study of the Ancient World at New York University. Before joining the NYU faculty in 2007, he was Jay Professor of Greek and Latin and Professor of History at Columbia University, where he had taught for 33 years. During that time he served as Dean of the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences and Chair of the Department of Classics. He specializes in the social and economic history of Hellenistic, Roman and Late Antique Egypt. Among his best-known works are Egypt in Late Antiquity (1993), The Demography of Roman Egypt (1994; with Bruce Frier), and Reading Papyri, Writing Ancient History (1995).

Editor

Byzantium

Elizabeth M. Jeffreys is Bywater and Sotheby Professor of Byzantine and Modern Greek Language and Literature Emerita in the University of Oxford, and also Fellow Emerita of Exeter College, Oxford. She works on topics in Byzantine literature, including chronicles from the sixth century, and romances and court poetry from the Komnenian and Palaeologan periods. Her recent books include Digenis Akritis (1998) and The Age of the Dromon (2006).